Abstracts

While mobility norms are starting to resume in 2021 as a relaxing of restrictions is enabling Indians to leave their homes and start to socialise more frequently, a large proportion of the white-collar population is continuing to work remotely from home. In addition, since all schools and colleges have not been fully operational for much of the year, many students are also studying from home. As witnessed in 2020, this scenario means that time spent in front of digital devices remains high, resu...
