Abstracts

Having plunged by almost a quarter during 2020, retail current value sales of luxury eyewear will exhibit no more than the most marginal of rebounds during 2021. During the lockdown period from March-May 2020, the entire eyewear supply chain remained open. This was due to eye care being considered an essential product, so retailers of eyewear were allowed to operate normally. Despite this, demand for luxury eyewear declined steeply, as increasingly price-sensitive luxury consumers either postpon...
