Abstracts

Retail current value sales of luxury eyewear declined at a double-digit rate during 2020 due to a combination of the economic shock of the pandemic and a decline in international tourist arrivals and recovered only partially in 2021. Nonetheless, demand for luxury eyewear performed relatively robustly in the broader context of personal luxury. This is because purchases of luxury eyewear have both a health and wellness and fashion element, and the former is less vulnerable to macroeconomic fluctu...
