Abstracts

COVID-19 had a significant negative impact on eyewear as a whole in 2020, particularly with regard to its exposure to certain distribution channels (including travel retail). However, in 2021, as vaccines are now being more widely distributed, restrictions are mostly being lifted in the UK, and consumers are entering a “new normal”, people can once again attend their eye appointments and visit stores, motivating them to buy eyewear products. Growth is also being fuelled by increased awareness am...
