Abstracts

Luxury foodservice bore the brunt of a three-pronged impact from the COVID-19 pandemic and will continue its decline in 2021. Like other foodservice categories, the category suffered from widespread outlet closures for around ten months within the period of March 2020 to mid-2021. This period of national lockdown lasted longer in Paris and the Île-de-France region where there was a higher concentration of COVID-19 contamination. During the period of outlet closures, takeaway services and deliver...
