Abstracts

As of late August 2021, there were no lockdown measures in effect in the United Arab Emirates. Most businesses – including foodservice and retail outlets – were permitted to operate at 80% of normal capacity, while hotels could operate at full capacity, subject to rules requiring social distancing and the wearing of face masks in some situations. Proof of vaccination – provided via the Al Hosn app – was necessary to attend certain types of public venues and events, particularly in Abu Dhabi and...
