Abstracts

Retail sales of luxury goods in Brazil increased by 3% in current value terms to reach BRL38.7 billion in 2023. This development was predominantly characterised by a focus on recovery and a return to normal consumer behaviour in the post-pandemic period, encompassing working, travel, shopping and buying luxury goods. Affluent consumers, in particular, sought to indulge themselves in the aftermath of the lockdown period. Sales in the post-pandemic world benefitted from the revival of travelling,...
