Abstracts

Retail sales of luxury goods in India increased by 3% in current value terms to reach INR553.8 billion in 2023. The post-lockdown period saw a focus on recovery and a revival of normal consumer behaviour, encompassing working, shopping, the resumption of travel and indulging in purchasing luxury goods. Development, in this context, was predominantly characterised by affluent consumers' inclination to treat themselves as they regained the ability to do so. Sales increased due to the return of aff...
