Abstracts

In 2023, luxury goods in Thailand continued to see an impressive recovery from the declines it recorded during the pandemic. This resurgence can be attributed to both the increase in spending among local consumers as well as the return of international visitors. A clear example of this can be seen at IconSiam, one of the biggest luxury shopping centres in Bangkok, where foot traffic and sales volume have notably increased. During the first quarter of 2023, IconSiam recorded a remarkable surge of...
