Abstracts

Luxury hotels underperformed in 2017, as demand from business travellers, comprising the bulk of its clientele, weakened as companies tightened their travel budgets amidst global economic fluctuations. In addition, receipts from leisure travellers were unable to offset the drop in business travellers. Despite an increase in tourist arrivals, mainly from China's second- and third-tier cities, a large proportion of them are budget-conscious travellers. They often come in tour groups and have tight...
