Abstracts

A new breed of luxury travellers continue to transform the global luxury hotels industry in 2014, with the search for authenticity strong as ever. Not surprisingly, regions such as the Middle East, which invested heavily in luxury and took it to new heights, are recording strong revPAR performance. This is only expected to improve in line with the rising disposable incomes of middle-class consumers and the fact that emerging markets remain a major force behind demand.

Euromonitor International's Luxury Hotels Enter a New Era global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel and Tourism market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Car Rental, Demand Factors, Health and Wellness Tourism, Online Travel Sales to Country Residents, Tourism Flows Domestic, Tourism Flows Inbound, Tourism Flows Outbound, Tourism Receipts and Expenditure, Tourist Attractions, Transportation, Travel Accommodation, Travel Retail.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
