Abstracts

Having plunged by almost two thirds during 2020, retail current value sales of luxury hotels saw no more than a marginal recovery in 2021. Many hotels remained closed even after they were allowed to reopen during 2020 due to a lack of demand. Inbound international tourism was decimated by the pandemic, particularly from such important markets as the US and China.

Euromonitor International's Luxury Hotels in Italy report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the Luxury Hotels market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market and their effects on Luxury Hotels retailing along with the development of consumers' shopping patterns. Forecasts to 2025 illustrate how the market is set to change

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
