Abstracts

Although the entire hospitality industry, including luxury hotels, endured 2020 with hopes for strong recovery of inbound tourism in 2021 due to the postponement of the Tokyo Olympic and Paralympic Games, this never came to fruition, as the Games were held with no audience. The fifth wave of COVID-19 started at the beginning of July and spread at a rapid pace, as it was the more infectious Delta variant. This led to the fourth declaration of a state of emergency by the Japanese government. The I...
