Abstracts

The impact of COVID-19 was not as severe in South Korea as it was in many other countries for most luxury goods, but luxury hotels suffered badly due to the steep decline in the number of tourists visiting the country. Domestic tourism also suffered during the first half of 2020, although, with the summer vacation season, luxury hotels demonstrated some progress.

Euromonitor International's Luxury Hotels in South Korea report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the Luxury Hotels market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market and their effects on Luxury Hotels retailing along with the development of consumers' shopping patterns. Forecasts to 2025 illustrate how the market is set to change

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
