Abstracts

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, many luxury hotels have been forced to close as they have been unable to survive the drastic decline in inbound tourism. However, the closure of some hotels is not wholly down to the pandemic. The Tourism Bureau, part of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, is looking to attract inbound tourists from countries in regions like the EU or the Americas in 2021 as part of its new southbound tourists policy. This is aimed at offsetting the falling nu...
