Abstracts

As in other countries around the world, the COVID-19 pandemic severely impacted the tourism industry in Turkey in 2020, including luxury hotels. Ongoing uncertainty around changing travel restrictions meant that many consumers were wary of making travel plans or bookings. However, as travel restrictions began to be eased, efforts were made to salvage as much of the summer 2020 season as possible. This involved a heavy focus on implementing strict hygiene protocols after the Turkish Culture and T...
