Abstracts

Overall, luxury jewellery is expected to perform relatively well in 2021, with its current value growth rate slowing only slightly. However, the pandemic has resulted in some consumption pattern shifts. For example, luxury costume jewellery's growth has been slower than luxury fine jewellery's as the consumer base for luxury costume jewellery is largely made up of middle-class buyers. Due to the financial consequences of the pandemic, this socioeconomic segment has been more likely to economise...
