Abstracts

When looking at the luxury goods industry in Germany, it comes as no surprise that luxury travel goods was amongst the worst affected categories. Due to travel restrictions and overall fear amongst consumers about travelling, sales in this category dropped considerably throughout the beginning of the pandemic in 2020. Thus, 2021 was the first year of recovery, and the category registered a strong rebound, as air travel opened up once again and a vaccination programme was implemented, allowing re...
