Abstracts

After maintaining dynamic double-digit retail current value increases during most of the review period, along with slightly slower retail volume growth rates, luxury leather goods has seen sales plummet by both measures in 2020, due to COVID-19. The emergence of the virus in the country at the beginning of the year led to a nationwide lockdown from the end of March to the end of May, during which all non-essential retail outlets were closed, including retailers of leather goods. This was followe...
