Abstracts

Retail current value sales of luxury leather goods plunged by more than a quarter during 2020 and recovered only marginally in 2021. Apart from non-essential retail outlets being forced to close between March and May, the pandemic had a significant negative effect on consumer confidence, leading many Italians to postpone non-essential purchases – particularly big-ticket ones. Even if they could still afford them, many also felt uncomfortable making large discretionary purchases for the purpose o...
