Abstracts

Luxury leather goods experienced a negative impact from the onset of COVID-19 since 2020. The decimation of international tourist arrivals due to the closure of borders in Malaysia negatively affected demand for luxury leather goods. High net worth individuals who visit the country tend to spend significant sums on luxury leather goods in Malaysia, especially during the holidays. At a domestic level, the government imposed a countrywide lockdown between March and early May 2020, requiring the cl...
