Abstracts

2021 was a favourable year for luxury bags and small leather goods in Russia. A key factor in this were the various restrictions that limited opportunities to spend on other products, as well as foreign travel. While Russia reopened its borders in April 2021 many consumers remained reluctant to travel abroad due to fears around COVID-19 and the strict entry requirements imposed by most markets. As a result, wealthier people looked for opportunities to spend money at home, with this benefiting sa...
