Abstracts

Luxury portable consumer electronics in France will continue to be negatively impacted by COVID-19 in 2021. The category has continued to suffer from the same issues as the first year of the pandemic, namely store closures and a lack of tourists. The store-closures during the national lockdowns prevented store-based sales for several months and the shift towards e-commerce was highly limited. This is because most consumers prefer to purchase luxury products in-person due to valuing the customer...
