Abstracts

Very few changes were detected in sales of luxury portable consumer electronics during 2021 and this is a reflection of the tiny size of the category, which remains an insignificant area of luxury goods in Indonesia. In fact, authorised sales of these items is focused on a handful of retailers located in Jakarta. After the departure of Vertu from the country in 2017, the availability of luxury portable consumer electronics has been extremely limited. As such, many Indonesians are choosing to travel...
