Abstracts

Demand for luxury portable consumer electronics is quite limited in Italy, and retail current value sales of luxury mobile phones were in decline even before the onset of the pandemic, with luxury wearables overtaking luxury mobile phones in terms of retail current value sales in 2018. While retail current value sales of luxury portable consumer electronics declined at a double-digit rate during 2020, they still outperformed most other products in personal luxury. The health-monitoring features...
