Abstracts

Sales of luxury portable consumer electronics plummeted in 2020, with travel restrictions limiting the consumer base due to the lack of inbound tourists, and the temporary closure of non-essential retailers playing a significant part. However, the category is set to see a strong rebound in its retail volume and current value sales in 2021, with luxury wearables driving growth. This category has been benefiting from more consumers opting to purchase luxury wearables rather than jewellery such as...
