Abstracts

Sales of luxury timepieces were impacted heavily in 2020 and at the start of 2021 as retailers were obliged to close their physical stores during the lockdown periods. Luxury timepieces are typically bought in-store as customers wish to see and experience them before buying due to the value of high-end watches. However, as regions reopened their economies and loosened safety measures, consumers increasingly transitioned back to their pre-pandemic work and social activities, including shopping. E...
