Abstracts

After the double-digits drop experienced in 2020, luxury timepieces will start to recover in 2021. The category suffered during the national lockdowns (the first from March 2020 to May 2020, the second from October 2020 to the spring 2021) as this necessitated the closure of all non-essential retail outlets in France, preventing in-store sales during these times. Luxury stores located in Paris saw particularly strong declines as the almost complete absence of non-European tourists strongly limit...
