Abstracts

Luxury timepieces has shown a markedly improved performance in 2021, with the category set to post double-digit growth in volume and current value terms after having recorded steep declines in 2020. Overall demand has rebounded as the rollout of COVID-19 vaccines and the easing of public health restrictions have allowed non-essential retailers to reopen, fuelled a robust recovery in the Dutch economy and strengthened confidence among local consumers. The fact that many people have recently built...
