Abstracts

Having plunged by more than a third during 2020, retail current value sales of luxury timepieces saw no more than a modest rebound in 2021. Inbound international tourists, particularly from Asia, Latin America and Russia, represent a significant source of demand for luxury timepieces in Spain, but international tourism ground to a halt during 2020 and remained subdued during 2021. The Longines, Omega and Rolex brands tend to be particularly popular with international tourists in Spain.

Euromonitor International's Luxury Timepieces in Spain report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the Luxury Timepieces market at a national level.
