Abstracts

Luxury travel goods experienced 7% current value growth in 2014, benefiting from the spending of wealthy Chinese tourists. According to Euromonitor International's Travel and Tourism 2014 report, total inbound trips from China increased by 14% in 2013, representing the second largest increase after those from the United Arab Emirates. Chinese tourists choose Australia as a destination not just for holidays but to purchase luxury goods and escape the high taxes and duties they receive in their...
