Abstracts

The end of the review period witnessed Italian consumers of luxury goods becoming increasingly careful about their purchases, and luxury travel goods were amongst the products most affected by this trend. Being perceived as less essential items, volume sales declined as a result of falling demand, with retail value sales therefore also decreasing.

Euromonitor International's Luxury Travel Goods in Italy report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the Luxury Travel Goods market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market and their effects on Luxury Travel Goods retailing along with the development of consumers' shopping patterns. Forecasts to 2018 illustrate how the market is set to change

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
