Abstracts

Luxury travel goods recorded continuous current value growth over the review period, even during the years of the economic crisis. This was mostly due to the novelty of such products for Romanian consumers. Sales of luxury travel goods grew by 7% in current terms in 2014 and reached RON7 million, partly supported by economic growth. Nevertheless, luxury travel goods remained only a niche area. In 2014, there were only 1, 200 products sold in the country. There was also a notable change in the...
