Abstracts

During the COVID-19 pandemic, luxury writing instruments and stationery suffered a dramatic drop in sales. This is due to the category reporting negligible sales of store-based retailing during the national lockdown periods due to the closure of non-essential retail outlets. The negligible sales that the category recorded during this period were due to some products being available in upmarket tobacconists that remained open. When the national lockdown came to an end, however, the category was f...
