Abstracts

After a completely disrupted year in 2020, when market circumstances and therefore consumer behaviour changed rapidly and left most players without a concrete action plan, 2021 started in a similar way, with lockdowns being imposed across the country, followed by major restrictions for bricks-and-mortar retailers. These conditions made it impossible for luxury writing instruments and stationery to see a full recovery from 2020's losses. The strong rebound seen in 2021 was, however, reflective of...
