Abstracts

In 2021, luxury writing instruments and stationery began the first year of an expected long road to recovery to the 2019 level of current value sales. While the category was one of the least negatively affected within personal luxury amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, thanks in large part to its more essential nature and usefulness during quarantines, it still registered its steepest sales decline in recent history. This was because pandemic-related travel restrictions, store closures, economic const...
