Abstracts

Malher is a domestic company that in August 2010 was acquired by the multinational giant Nestlé. According to Nestlé, the acquisition is an attempt to combine its strength in research and development with Malher's strong distribution capacity and brand recognition in Guatemala. Additionally, Malher's strength in manufacturing powder food and drink products brings additional knowledge to Nestlé that can be leveraged on a global level. After the merger, Nestlé decided to leave Malher as an indepen...
