Abstracts

Mass beauty and personal care in Bolivia registered higher value growth than premium in 2023. With prices rising, particularly for imported brands, due to a significant fall in foreign cash reserves, there was a degree of trading down behaviour from premium to mass. Mass players also tried to minimise price rises as much as possible. That being said, prices did rise, and this pushed some consumers to cross over to the black market, where contraband is widely available through traditional channel...
