Abstracts

While premium beauty and personal care products continued to show a robust performance in 2022, there was also healthy growth in sales of mass products in 2022, driven by Brazilian consumers' increasing attentiveness towards health and skin care. Categories such as mass adult sun care and skin care outperformed the premium segment, with per capita spending on these categories experiencing an approximate 12% increase from 2021 to 2022 in local currency. This signifies the growing importance place...
