Abstracts

The “Made in Cameroon” logo, one which started in the food industry, has rapidly gained traction and spread across other industries including beauty and personal care. As the Cameroonian government touted its import substitution policy in order to boost the local sector, promoters of this slogan wasted no time in pushing for the “Made in Cameroon” concept. At the end of the review period, the slogan was found across the country, in stores and supermarkets with shelves marked with the label “Made...
