Abstracts

Strong price increases in supermarkets as a result of inflation was the biggest factor influencing the performance of mass beauty and personal care in Greece in 2023. Many local consumers selected shopping destinations based on offers and discounts on specific products at the time and were keen to cut down on any non-essential purchases. This was demonstrated in two key categories of mass products, body wash/shower gel and standard shampoos, which saw volume sales stagnate and decline in 2023, w...
