Abstracts

In 2023, well-established mainstream brands in mass beauty and personal care benefited from the complex economic environment. Households in New Zealand experienced large increases to living costs due to increases in interest payments and grocery food prices. This was felt acutely by consumers in all income groups who now find that they are spending a larger proportion of their income on everyday necessities such as food, fuel, mortgage, and rent. In response to this, consumers are changing the W...
