Abstracts

Mass retail sales, not least in larger categories like colour cosmetics and fragrances, performed well in 2021 and/or 2022. While the demand for beauty and personal care in Norway was relatively unaffected by price increases, since the majority of Norwegian consumers say these products are a staple or must-have, value for money or bang for buck became more important. Similar to the industry as a whole, the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic boosted mass beauty and personal care considerably, result...
