Abstracts

Mass beauty and personal care continued to see strong growth in current value terms in 2023, albeit slightly slower than in the previous year as the country's economy contracted. With the pandemic being declared over in early 2023 more consumers returned to the workplace while there continued to be a growing focus on health and fitness. These factors played a key role in driving demand for a wide range of mass beauty and personal care from mass colour cosmetics to mass fragrances and deodorants,...
