Abstracts

Mass beauty and personal care saw dynamic double-digit growth in current value terms in 2022 with sales fuelled by the reopening of the economy, the lifting of restrictions and consumers returning to more active lives away from the home. With consumers interacting socially and for work on a more frequent basis again as COVID-19 fears subsided there was a renewed demand for products such as mass colour cosmetics and mass fragrances, while some consumers also looked to take greater care of their S...
