Abstracts

Mate is one of the world's most important hot drinks, with annual off-trade sales of over USD1 billion, despite its being regularly consumed in only a handful of countries. As consumers all around the world look for naturally healthy sources of energy, mate and drinks from related plants are attracting increasing interest outside their historical core markets and traditional consumption formats.

Euromonitor International's Mate and the Rise of Plant-Based Natural Energy Alternatives global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Soft Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on value and volume for both off trade and on trade.

Product coverage: Asian Speciality Drinks, Bottled Water, Carbonates, Concentrates, Juice, RTD Coffee, RTD Tea, Sports and Energy Drinks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
