Abstracts

Mead Johnson's packaged food activities are almost entirely focused on baby food, through two key milk formula brands Enfamil and Enfagrow. The vast majority of its sales are derived from China, the US and Hong Kong, although it has a growing presence in other markets in Asia Pacific, notably in the Philippines and Vietnam, benefiting from a rise in toddler milk formula sales, as well as in Argentina. These markets may provide growth opportunities, offsetting a slowdown in Greater China.

Euromonitor International's Mead Johnson Nutrition Co in Packaged Food (World) Company Profile offers detailed strategic analysis of the company's business, examining its performance in the Packaged Food market. The report examines company shares by region and sector, brand portfolio and new product developments, market and distribution strategies, challenges from the competition and future prospects.
