Abstracts

Over the review period, MeadWestvaco Corporation (MWV) has signalled that it would be focusing its efforts on consumer products packaging. It's spinoff of its consumer and office products division in 2012 and its sale of US forest lands to in 2013 indicates a shift in this direction. The planned separation of its specialty chemicals company in 2015 lends more support to this argument. The company intends to identify top priority customers based on profit potential, and then build or enhance...
