Abstracts

After several years of decline, soup in Argentina saw overall retail volume sales return to positive territory in 2022. While it looks set to record an improved performance in this regard in 2023, growth remains modest, partly due to strong competition from instant noodles, but also because unit prices for multiple products have risen at rates well above inflation as a result of supply chain problems caused by raw material shortages and other factors. For example, local manufacturer Green Seed S...
