Abstracts

In a cross-category trend, meals and soups is seeing falling volumes in light of the skyrocketing unit prices which are supporting high value growth. Contributing factors include the rising costs of raw materials, ingredients, and energy, alongside the depreciation of the EGP. The currency factor means it is even more expensive than ever for Egyptian businesses to import raw materials, leading to increases in the prices of finished goods – such as seen in ready meals and soups. Furthermore, froz...
